

Are you concerned about your child's handwriting?

Occupational Therapy Helping Children offer an expert service to help children develop functional handwriting skills.

We are currently offering places in our Write Ready Programme, a handwriting group, aimed at improving cursive writing skills, designed for children in Years 3 to 6 running in the next school holidays at our Crows Nest and Lindfield clinics.

The groups are especially designed to give your child the help they need with ...

Handwriting

Want to know more? Ask the Therapist or phone Head Office on 9913 3823 or complete the Registration Form but be quick as places fill early!!